LIVELY YESTERDAY

Housewives Crowd the Stalls in Search of Delicacies for Sunday.

COAST CONSIGNMENTS ARRIVING DAILY NOW

Spring Chickens, Geese, Ducks, Turkeys and Other Meats Offered.

As was expected, yesterday proved to be a busy day all along market row, and as a result the dealers were well satisfied. Housekeepers were busily engaged in laying in their Sunday supplies, and there was a splendid assortment of tempting varieties to choose from.

From present indications dairy produce will be lower in the near future. Fresh creamery butter is now selling from 30 to 35 cents a pound and eggs at 25 and 30 cents a dozen.

The new fish on the market are fresh water pike and salmon trout, which are of a splendid quality and are likely to be purchased by those who are fond of a delicacy.

Those who want a last taste of celery

Those who want a last taste of celery must buy it quickly or not at all, as it will probably be off the market in a few days.

As before stated, greens are becoming more plentiful as the season advances, and pie plant, oyster plant, brussels sprouts and other vegetables of a very good quality can be bought at a comparatively low price for this season of the year.

There is some very nice tame duck on the market, which is retailing at 20 cents a pound, and spring chickens at 22 cents, but generally fowls are rather high.

The arrival of a large-consignment of pleasing to bananas of a fine grade is pleasing to lovers of that fruit. The biggest bargain on the row are cranberries, which continue to sell at 5 cents a quart.

The wholesale trade will receive large shipments of various kinds during the week, among which there will be Florida tomatoes of a very good quality.

May option advanced almost a cent and the July delivery was 14c higher.

The primary cause of the strength was an advance of $\frac{3}{2}\) (6 \frac{1}{2}\) at Liverpool, which was due, it was said, to the famine situation in Russia. The strength of the market was later increased by reports of a brisk demand for wheat for export.
